What can I do there?

Dreadnought gives you the chance to meet adults who will listen and try to help you sort out any problems you may have.

You may not have any problems, which is fine, in that case Dreadnought provides you with lots of fun, and the opportunity to meet other young people.

Dreadnought also gives you loads of information about all the things which affect young people - so that you can then think about things and make informed choices for yourself.

“Give it a go, you never know you might like it”
